Lyricist: Randy Seabolt

Love, like rushing waves
Fills my heart, what you gave
When you were born on that day
A gift from heaven to play
Whispering, I love you...
You're Paw Paw's little girl true

When I held you in my arms
Looking like an Angel
Melting my heart
Whispering, I love you
Knowing you'll always be Paw Paw's little girl

Love, like rushing waves
Fills my heart, what you gave
When you were born on that day
A gift from heaven to play
Whispering, I love you...
You're Paw Paw's little girl true

Your little finger wrapped mine
That beautiful smile in line
Your blue eyes looking at me
Your tiny hands in mine, I see
Love you til the world stops spinning
Paw paw's little girl winning

The years will go by
From baby girl sighs
Spread your wings and fly a beautiful woman I spy

take on this world... so free
I'll be with you, you and me

Love, like rushing waves
Fills my heart, what you gave
When you were born on that day
A gift from heaven to play
Whispering, I love you...
You're Paw Paw's little girl true

So, remember this
My love is where you may be
No distance too great for me Granddaughter, you'll always be Pawpaw's little girl, to... me
