

Wake Up, My Beer is Gone

© 2023

Lyricist: Alain Levac

Fun in the evening, fun until dawn
Who's here? Wake Up! My beer is gone
Remember what is going on
Wake up my beer is gone, it's gone
That's not right, it's totally wrong

Come on and sing this really cool song
Wake up, wake up, my beer is gone
A man hangs out, there's someone to blame
There's really no need to explain
Enough is enough now for today
Yeah, I drink too much but that's ok

Sometimes a good time isn't really done
We love to drink beer and have all the fun
It's such a great time when all those bottles pop
The mood is so hot, and we just can't stop

Come on and sing this really cool song
Wake up, wake up, my beer is gone
A man hangs out, there's someone to blame
There's really no need to explain
Enough is enough now for today
Yeah, I drink too much but that's ok

I was happy when I was younger
A thirsty binge pulled me under
I wanted to get out of my cage
Those good old days, I was all the rage
Too many beers, got me in trouble
Blurry in spots and seeing double find a nice girl, I still can see
A lady to start a family
Beers and parties still adore me
I ended up alone, my story

Come on and sing this really cool song
Wake up, wake up, my beer is gone
A man hangs out, there's someone to blame
There's really no need to explain
Enough is enough now for today
Yeah, I drink too much but that's ok

I was happy when I was younger
A thirsty binge pulled me under
I was happy when I was younger
